ISSUE 1 8 JANUARY 2007

REGIONAL NEWS

Happy New Year! I hope you all are having a successful hunting season with your Deutsch Kurzhaars.

In 2007 the Mid-South Region will once again have a newsletter. The purpose of the newsletter is to keep everyone informed about upcoming events and to share hunting, training and DK stories with one another. Please send in your announcements and stories to the Regional Secretary for publication in the newsletter.

Our Region's first test in 2007 will be the Derby, VJP, BTR scheduled for April 21 & 22. The test will be held in Perry, Oklahoma at the home of Phil and Gayla Salvati. Several training days have also been scheduled to help us prepare for this season's tests. We have all been invited by the Salvatis to duck hunt the morning of January 21 but advanced notice is a must. Please contact Patrick Taylor, Regional Test Coordinator, if you want to participate in any of the training days and/or the test. Advanced notice of participation is very important and is the only way to guarantee enough training birds for every DK.

FIRST TRAINING DAY GEARED TOWARDS DERBY

The first training day is just a few weeks away! The focus will be to help all those who are running their pups in the April Derby. If this will be your first time to run a Derby you won't want to miss this informative day.

Phil and Gayla have invited all those who wish to participate in the training day to duck hunt with them early Sunday morning. After a warm cup of coffee we'll introduce the pups to a short blood drag and then head out to the fields surrounding Phil and Gayla's home. There are wild coveys of quail in the area but we will have pen raised birds as well.

Please be sure to RSVP to Patrick Taylor if you plan on attending. We hope to see you all on Sunday, January 21.
